

PRESS RELEASE

TRISURA GROUP ANNOUNCES SHAREHOLDER APPROVAL AND EFFECTIVE DATE OF SHARE CONSOLIDATION AND SHARE SPLIT

TORONTO, December 11, 2017 — Trisura Group Ltd. (“Trisura” or the “Company”) (TSX: TSU) today announced that the previously announced 1 for 10 share consolidation of its common shares (the “share consolidation”) followed immediately by a 10 to 1 share split (the “share split”) received shareholder approval at Trisura’s special meeting of shareholders held earlier today. Shareholders also approved and ratified Trisura’s management share option plan (the “option plan”) and the option grants made to date thereunder at today’s meeting. The share consolidation and share split was approved by approximately 99.54% of the votes cast by all of the Trisura shareholders eligible to vote at the meeting and approximately 99.36% of the votes cast by minority shareholders of Trisura. The option plan and the option grants were approved and ratified by approximately 90.12% of the votes cast by all of the Trisura shareholders eligible to vote at the meeting.

Share Consolidation and Share Split

The share consolidation and share split is expected to become effective on December 29, 2017 (the “effective date”) for common shares held by shareholders of record at the close of business on December 20, 2017 (the “record date”). The common shares are expected to begin trading on a post-consolidation and split basis on the Toronto Stock Exchange on the effective date under the same trading symbol.

As previously announced, cash proceeds will be paid to shareholders who hold less than 10 common shares as of the record date at a price per Trisura common share based on the average trading price of Trisura common shares for the 20 days prior to the effective date.

Letters of transmittal were mailed to registered shareholders on November 10, 2017 providing instructions to surrender the certificates evidencing their common shares to Trisura’s transfer agent, AST Trust Company (Canada) (“AST”), for (a) in the case of holders of 10 or more common shares as of the record date, replacement certificates representing the same number of common shares they currently hold and (b) in the case of holders of less than 10 common shares as of the record date, cash proceeds. Following the record date, registered shareholders are requested to submit their share certificates, together with their completed applicable letter of transmittal, to AST. Copies of the letters of transmittal are available on the SEDAR profile of Trisura at www.sedar.com and our website at www.trisura.com/group/investor-centre. Registered shareholders may also contact AST to request a copy of the letter of transmittal at (416) 682-3860 (or 1-800-387-0825), or inquiries@astfinancial.com.

Non-registered shareholders who hold their Trisura common shares through an intermediary such as a bank, trust company, securities dealer or broker should note that these intermediaries may have their own procedures for processing the share consolidation and share split which may differ from those described above for registered shareholders. Non-registered shareholders who have questions should contact their intermediary for more information.
